Bundy to Discuss U.S. Policy In Southeast Asia at Harding

Gazette State News Service

SEARCY — William P. Bundy, assistant Secretary of State for Far Eastern Affairs, will speak at 7 p. m. October 14 at a special one-day Freedom Forum at the American Heritage Center at Harding College here.

Bundy will speak at the banquet concluding the session. His topic will be "United States Policies in Southeast Asia."

Bundy is a graduate of Yale and the Harvard Law School and practiced law at Washington before entering government service in 1951. He was with the Central Intelligence Agency for 10 years and spent three years on international security with the Defense Department. He was appointed to his present post in March, 1964.

The theme of the Forum is "Communism—What Is It?" Dr. James D. Bales of Harding will lead off the session at 10 a. m. with a talk on "What is Communism?"

Francis J. McNamara, director of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, will speak at noon on "Communist Activities in America Today." At 2:30, Ambassador Ting-fu F. Tsiang of Nationalist China will tell "How the Communists Took over China" followed at 4 p. m. by Serafin Menocal, former president of the Cuban Electric Company, who will describe "How the Communists Took Over Cuba."
